

Michał Pomorski MD, PhD

Specialist in gynecology and obstetrics

Assistant professor at the 2nd Department and Clinic of Gynecology and Obstetrics at the Medical University in Wrocław.

The best graduate of the Medical University in Wrocław in 2004.

He defended his doctoral dissertation with distinction. "Assessment of placental vascularization using power Doppler in physiological and complicated pregnancies."

He obtained the title of an assistant professor on the basis of a series of publications entitled "Scar after cesarean section in a non-pregnant uterus - ultrasound diagnostics, clinical implications and repair operations"

Board member and treasurer of the Polish Society of Gynecologists and Obstetricians

Author and co-author of numerous scientific papers presented at national and international congresses.

He specializes in endoscopic surgery and ultrasound diagnostics.