

Jim Thornton

Qualified Leeds. Worked in Kenya 1979 to 1963, Leeds, Bradford and Cardiff.

Professor of obstetrics and gynaecology, University of Nottingham 2020 till last month when he retired.

Previously Editor in chief of EJOG and BJOG, and clinical triallist, including GRIT, DIGITAT, PITCH, PITCHES, and 35-39 trials.

Qualified Leeds. Worked in Kenya 1979 to 1963, Leeds, Bradford and Cardiff.

Professor of obstetrics and gynaecology, University of Nottingham 2020 till last month when he retired.

Previously Editor in chief of EJOG and BJOG, and clinical triallist, including GRIT, DIGITAT, PITCH, PITCHES, and 35-39 trials.